

Responsibility and Liability

AJP Logistics Ltd, herein referred to as "the hiree," explicitly disclaims any responsibility for damages, injuries, or any adverse consequences towards individuals, vehicles, or property resulting from the use of the Gateclaw Traffic Spike System. Upon hiring, all legal responsibilities associated with the operation and consequences of the Gateclaw system are transferred to the hirer. The hirer acknowledges that they have familiarised themselves with the product, comprehended the associated risks, and accepts all legal liabilities arising from its use.

The hirer confirms having reviewed the hiree's recommendations concerning product maintenance, operation, proper siting, installation, and traffic management. This includes understanding and mitigating the risks outlined in this disclaimer, thereby accepting full responsibility for any consequences that may arise.
